The Star (Aquarius) and The Fool (Uranus) tell us that sometimes it's necessary to take that leap into the unknown in order to make our dreams come true.

I plummet into my dreams.

Aquarius rules all large birds. Geese were also sacred to Juno and Aphrodite, so having either of these in Aquarius natively makes the goose an excellent totem animal for you. Geese are ferocious protectors and excellent "watchdogs."

Stimulating and refreshing, essential oil of Eucalyptus is conducive to meditation and has the ability to release negative psychic energy. It's also good for expanding your perspective and opening you up to understanding someone else's point of view.

(Always follow label precautions when using this oil.)

The Water Violet is the Bach remedy for Aquarius. Water violet types are aloof, independent, and self-reliant. They can also be condescending. There may be a fear of involvement with a preference for detachment.

Uranus, Aquarius' ruling planet, can act as a sudden flash of insight or genius. If you suddenly understand something you have never understood before ~ Eureka! ~ you are having a breakthrough Uranian experience.

Uranus works through your head, not your heart, with a humanitarian focus.

A true "weirdo," Uranus is "way out" there ~ perhaps nerdy, geeky, and a bit goofy at times ~ and either really, really smart or completely bonkers.

Lucky Aquarius to have the Amethyst as your stone! This stone of sobriety is excellent for bringing clarity while increasing your intuition. It also places an emphasis on practical and logical behavior.

Place an amethyst in a prominent spot as an aid to meditation. It is also an excellent reminder to remain calm and to take a moment before acting in a rash manner.

Orchids are symbolic of love, beauty, luxury, and strength. In the Victorian Language of Flowers, it means a belle.

The goose is one of Aquarius' totem animals, and orchids are sometimes called Giddy-Ganders and Goosie-Ganders after Mother Goose and her babies.

The number 7 is associated with research, withdrawal, and meditation. Aquarius is a social sign, but needs time to regroup, re-energize ~ there's a lot of energy to replenish. The 7 gives Uranus and Aquarius that renewal time, complete with moments of epiphany and revelation.
